

Appendix B

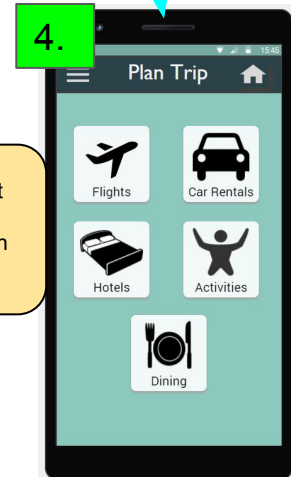

Manage trips is selected from the Home Page

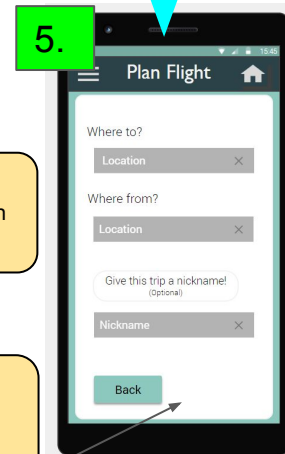

Your Account is selected from the Home Page

Payment Profile is selected from Your Account Screen

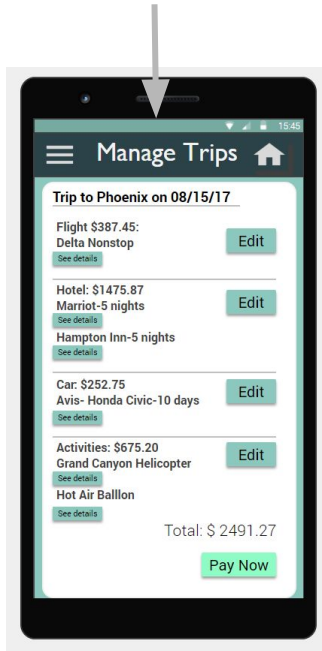

User selects flight option and then next from the Plan Trip screen

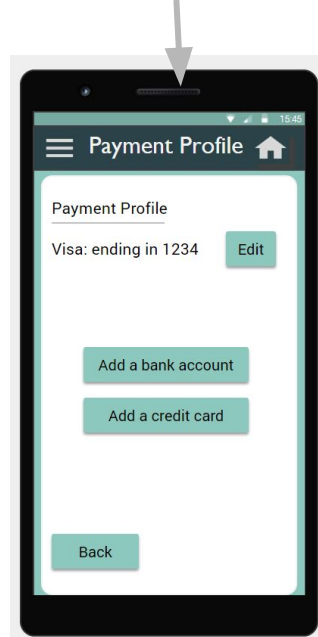

User is asked to enter in information for the flight

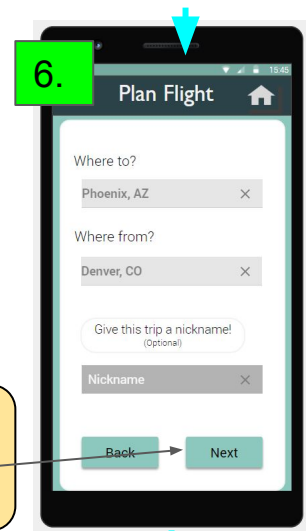

Next button is unavailable until required field are filled

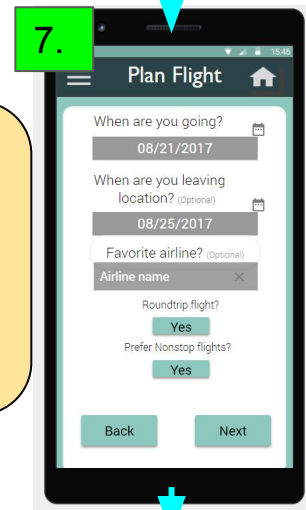

Trip details screen showing an example trip to Phoenix

Payment Profile screen allows users to add cards, bank account

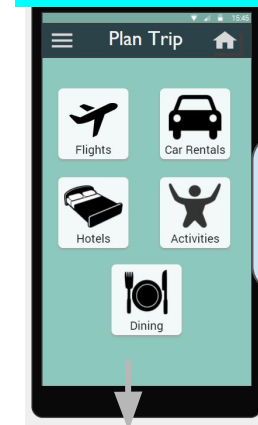

User enters in location information into both field and the next button becomes available

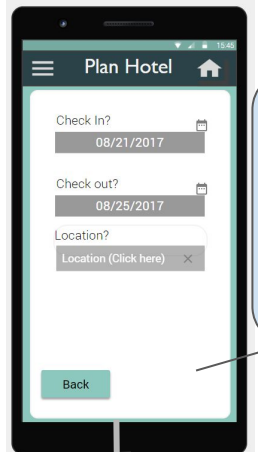

User prompted to enter date for flight. A confirmation of the location is provided by asking the user when they are leaving that location. That question is optional however. Only the first date field must be completed in order for the next button to become available.

Plan a Hotel Process

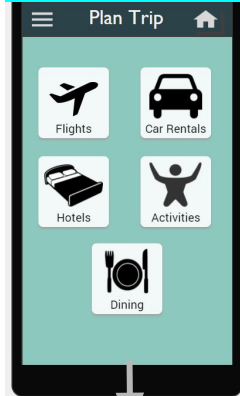

User chooses hotel from the plan trip screen

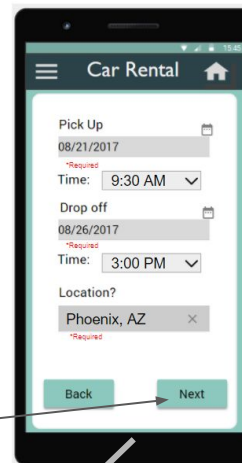

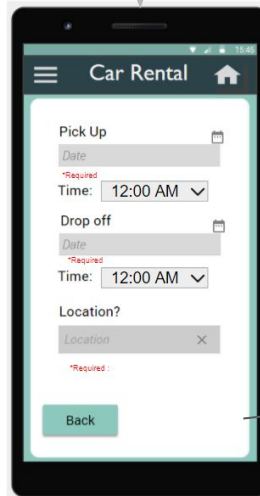

User prompted to enter dates and location. Next button is unavailable until these are filled. Tooltip shown if user tries to proceed

Plan a Car Process

User chooses car rental from the plan trip screen

After entering in information, user can proceed

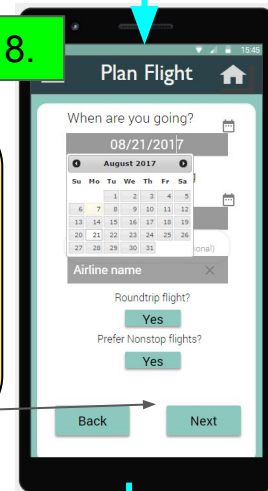

User enters date by clicking the calendar icon. The calendar icon will cause a calendar to pop out and the user can select the date appropriate.

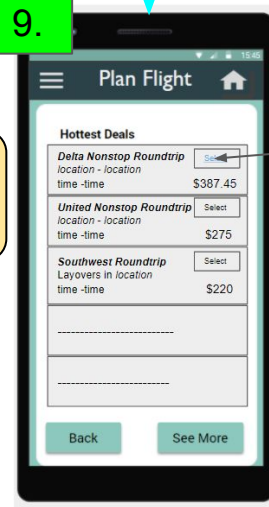

The next button is now available

Selecting next sends the user to this screen displaying flights

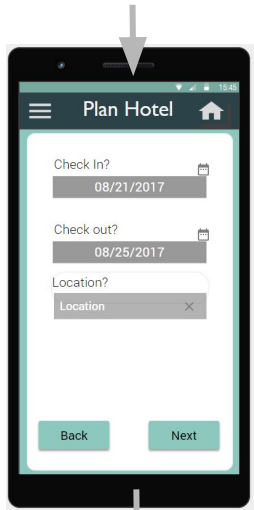

8.

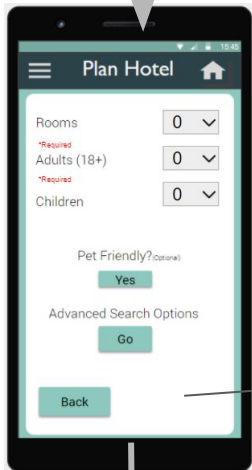

9.

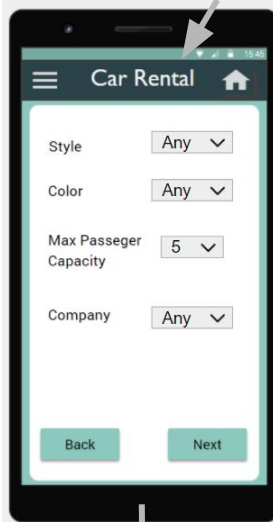

The user selects the delta flight by hitting the select button

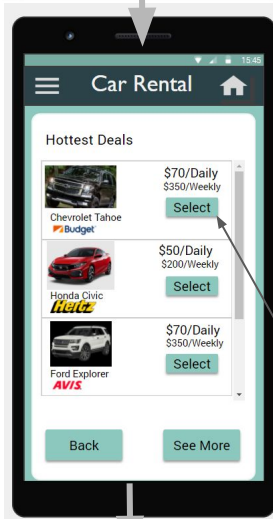

User prompted to enter dates and location. Next button is unavailable until these are filled

User must enter in required fields for next button to appear

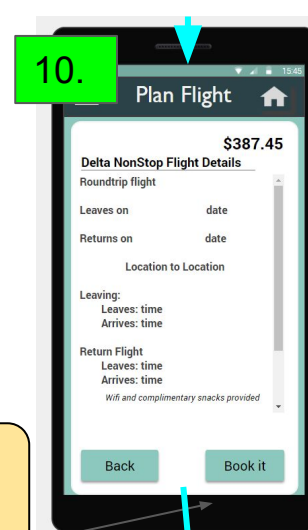

User prompted to filter results based on preferences. However, none of these fields are required. It defaults to "Any" And "5"

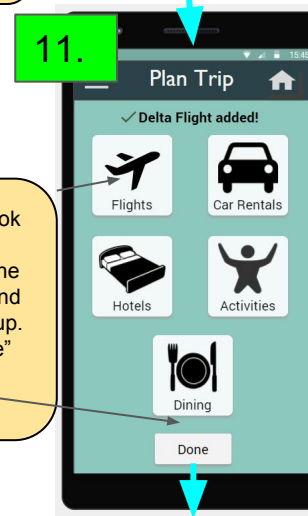

Results are shown here

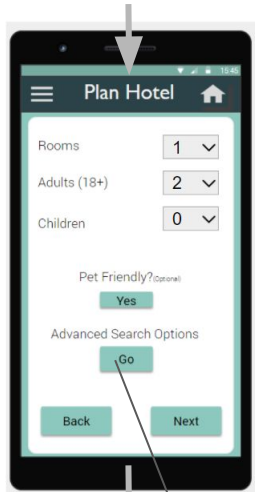

User selects the first choice by hitting the "select" button

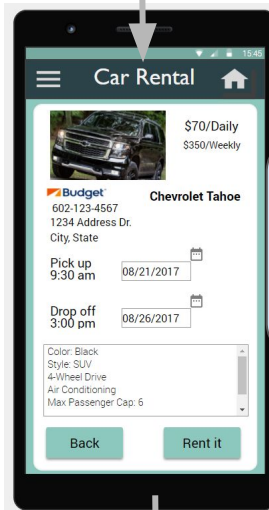

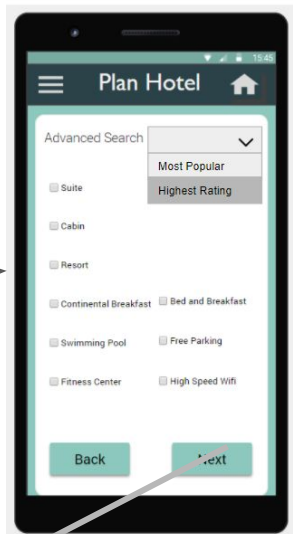

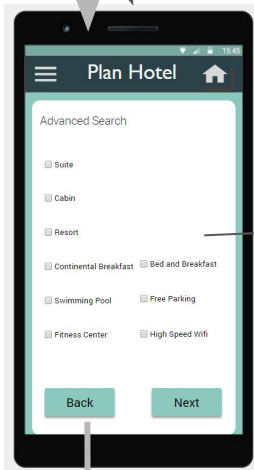

User is presented with more details of the flight and the option to book it

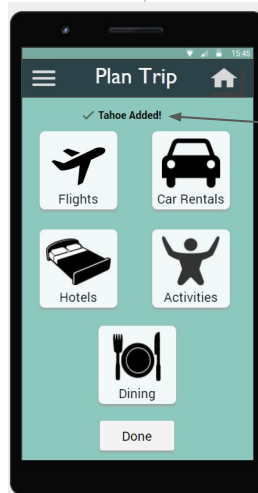

After selecting book it, the user is directed back to the plan trip screen and notification pops up. New option "Done" is added at the bottom

User has the option to use advanced search features

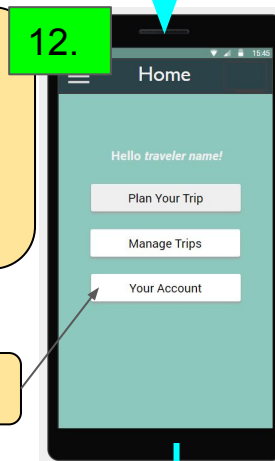

User can edit pick up and drop off dates here if needed. The "Rent it!" option will add the car to their trip

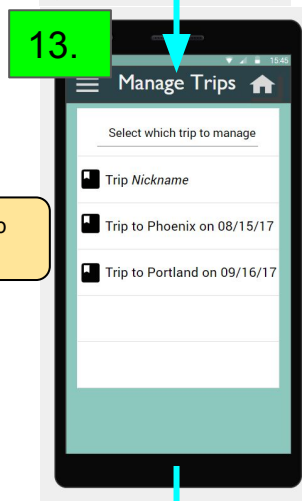

User directed back to the plan trip screen and notification that car was added is displayed

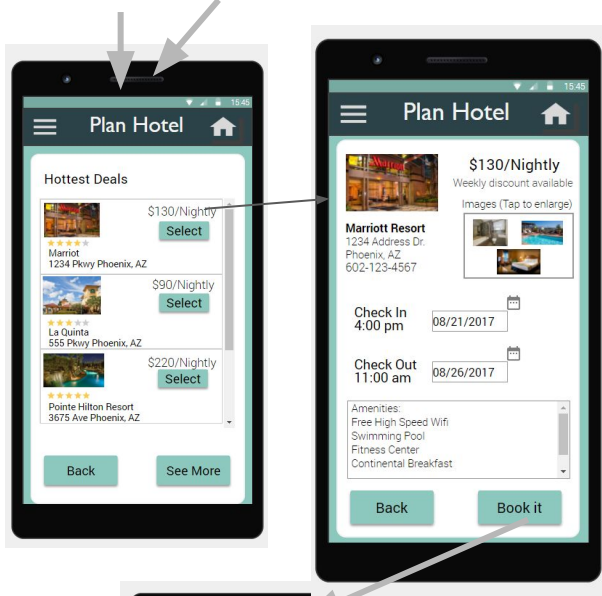

Instead of adding more details to the trip, the user decides he's done for now. The user selects done and is directed to the home page

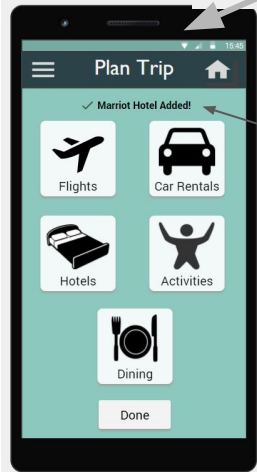

User selects Manage Trips

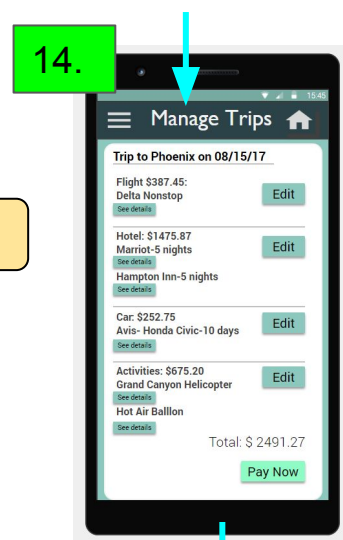

User selects the trip he has planned

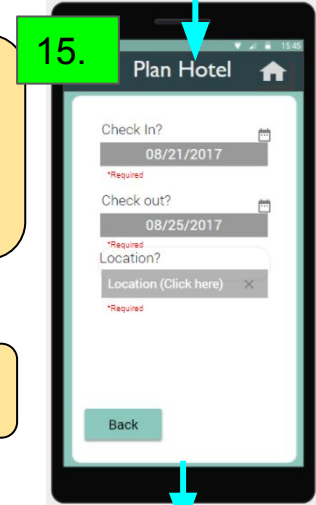

If the user selects one of the options, they will see a detailed hotel page and the option to book it

User directed back to the plan trip screen and notification that hotel was added is displayed

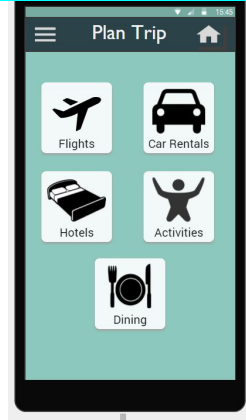

User selects Edit for Hotel

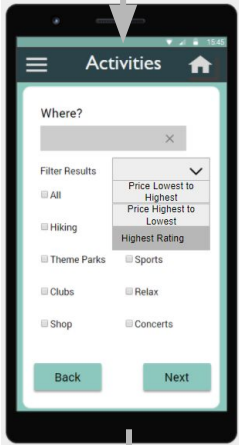

Because the user has not planned anything for the hotel previously, he is taken to the beginning of the plan hotel process

User decides not to plan a hotel and selects "Back"

Plan Activity Process

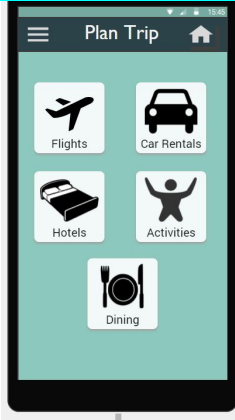

User selects
"Activities"

User is prompted to enter a location and
has options for
filtering results

Plan Dining Process

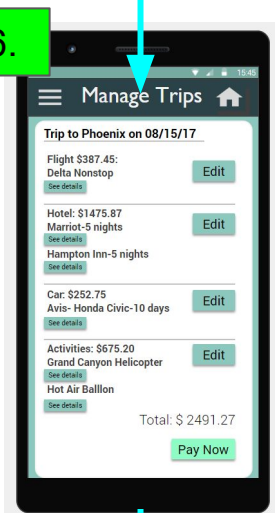

User selects
"Dining"

User is prompted to enter a location and
has options for
filtering results

16.

User selects "See details" for his flight

17.

Directed to flight details page. Delete option now in place of "book it" option.

User selects "Back"

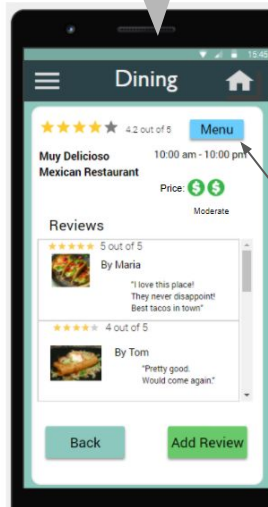

Results shown based on user's filter choices and user can read reviews for each activity.

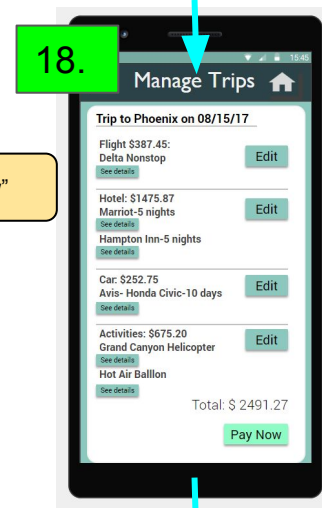

User selected Reviews for the first option which brings up this screen that displays the reviews for the sky diving activity

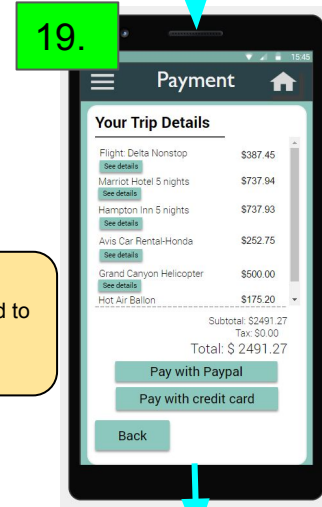

Results shown based on user's filter choices and user can read reviews for restaurant. Some have coupons that can be accessed.

User selected Reviews for the first option which brings up this screen that displays reviews. There is a menu button which will allow users to navigate to the restaurants's menu

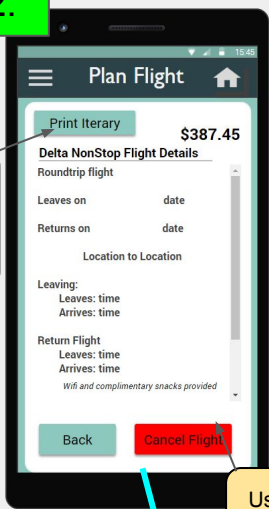

User selects "Pay Now"

User selects "Pay with Paypal" and is directed to the paypal payment screen 22.

New option to print itinerary is presented

User selects "See Details"

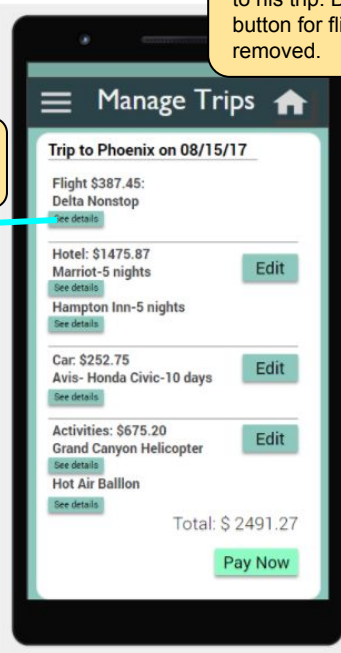

User selects "Cancel Flight"

23.

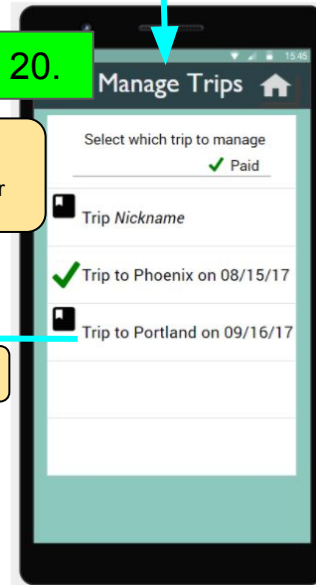

User is prompted to call Customer service and provided with relevant information

User can add more plans to his trip. But the edit button for flight has been removed.

User selects the trip again

20.

User is directed back to Manage Trips screen after payment